

I. "Palm Sunday" - Many Activities

- Entrance into Jerusalem
  - Beginning of Passover week - People coming to Jerusalem
  - God's M_____ fulfills prophecy (Zechariah 9:9-12)
  - Crowds welcome Jesus as promised king, Son of David (Political? Spiritual? Or?)

- Jesus the Messiah cleans out sinful practices in Temple - Offends many
- Jesus the Messiah respects and receives praises from children and b_____
- Jesus the Messiah teaches
- Jesus the Messiah proclaims His Messiahship/Kingship is to die
  - God the Father blesses the crowds with a direct message
  - Crowds confused, how can the Messiah die, who is to remain forever?
  - Crowds did not believe in Jesus. He hid from them.
    - They did not believe prophecies, miracles or God's the Father's direct voice from heaven
    - They crowds wanted their own version of a Messiah, not a Savior sent from God to forgive sin.

II. "Sir, we wish to see Jesus" What type of Jesus?

- Worldly and Temptations from Satan about the Messiah
  - Entertains?
  - Gives out plenty of temporary food and money and health?
  - Fulfills personal ambitions for career and success?
  - Supports preferred political perspective?

- Jesus the Messiah as given from God the Father
  - Messiah willing to die to save evil sinners, because He does not want them in hell.
  - Messiah willing to endure betrayal, denial, public humiliation and torture in order to obey God the Father.
  - Messiah willing to do God the Father's will, not human inclinations. (Die to self.)
  - Messiah who calls His forgiven followers to live, love and die for true godly, eternal l_____ ; disregarding "life" as the world values.
